SHENTI LOG

45

"And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Theme

We, the Class of '45, in time of war are serious minded. Many of our classmates are now serving our Country and we desire to pay tribute to all who are sacrificing everything for the home folks. Of this group a large number are in the Navy; therefore, we have chosen as our theme of this Annual, the Navy.

We sincerely hope that we have given them—and all of us—a noble memory of our high-school days.

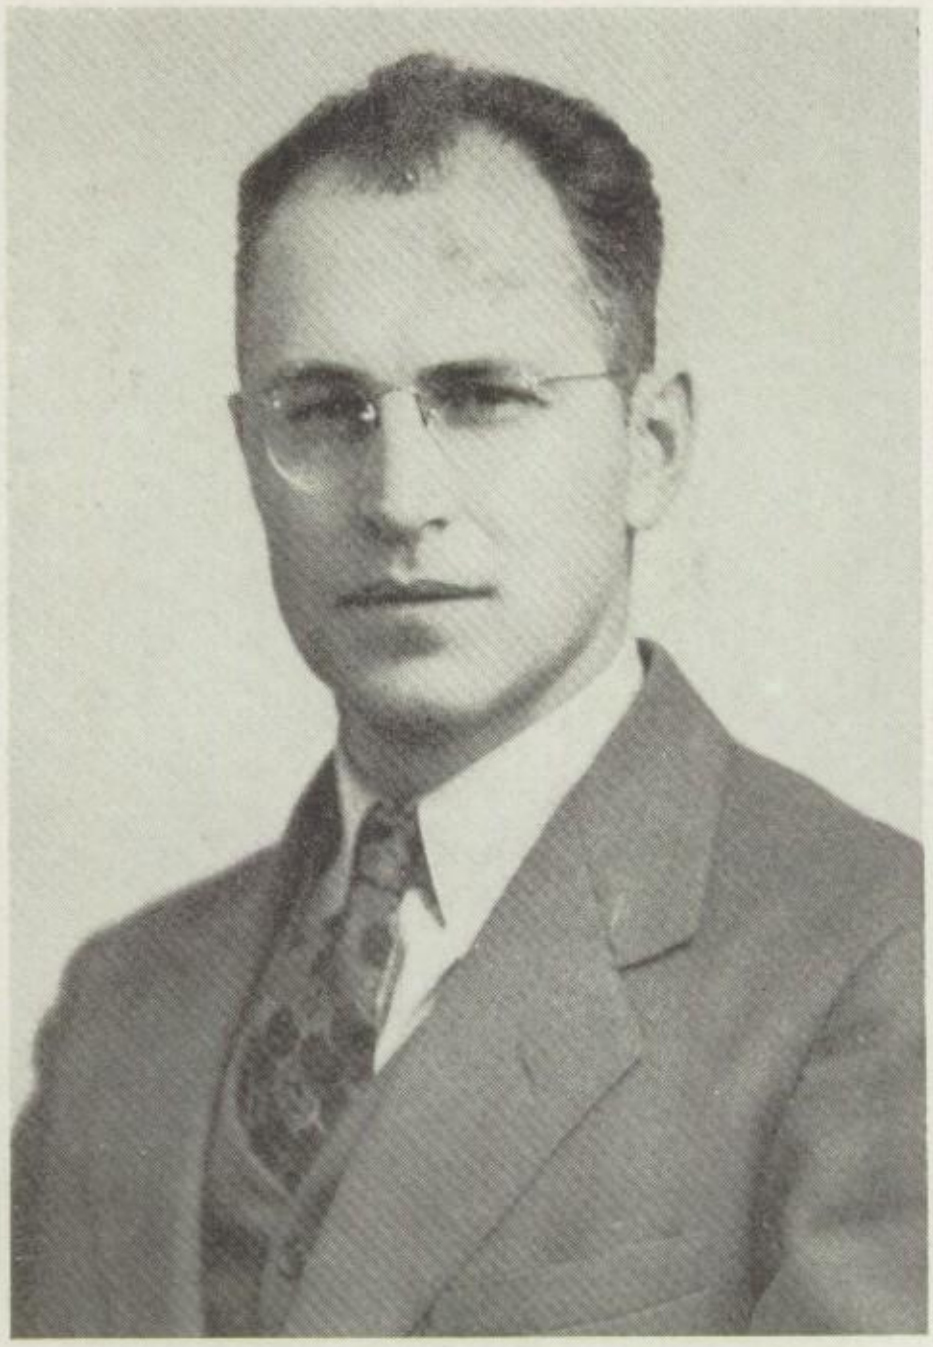
Dedication . . .



MR. EDWIN BEATTY

We wish to thank Mr. Beatty for all he has contributed to our class as home-room teacher and capable exponent of mathematics and the sciences.

All these years he has been a help to us. We shall not forget this splendid teacher nor his humor, and we hope that he will think of us kindly in the years to come.

The Junior Class

The present Junior Class made its debut in September 1942. At that time the enrollment was 98 members. We elected Merle Zeigler as our President, Gladys Feil as Vice President, Josephine Denny as Secretary, and Howard Moran as Treasurer. With Mr. Beatty as our Adviser we made an admirable record even though we bore the name, "those green Freshies."

We had matured somewhat when the next fall rolled around, and 75 Sophomores returned to Shenango's halls of learning to be again under Mr. Beatty's careful supervision. Zeigler, McGuire, Feil, and Charles Tanner happened to be our best politicians and captured the offices for that memorable year.

"Time Marched On" and we entered our present year, and the remainder of our history is summed up in three verses of poetry written by Gladys Feil and Ann Paton:

"Mrs. Marino is our adviser
To work with her is a pleasure;
Michaels isn't any miser
With the funds, he carefully treasures.

Gladys takes down all the notes
And keeps reports close by;
While President Zeigler counts the votes,
Only casting his in case of a tie.

Ernie under the President
Is merely called V. P.
Thus we of '46 are bent
To be the best in history."

The Sophomore Class

The present Sophomore Class had an exciting and progressive Freshman year. There were 88 of us at the time of the printing of the '44 Annual. We surpassed all classes in the sale of the Yearbook to secure the coveted prize of doughnuts and ice cream. We said, "Goodbye" to that grand old year with a picnic at Cascade Park.

Our Sophomore year is told in rhyme by our poet, Charles McGary.

This year ends a year of many memories
Both in our nation and at school;
We have learned the effects of a long hard war,
And of more difficult subjects with no time to fool.

Our President McGary did his best,
Ably assisted by Johnny Cochran;
Secretary Fombelle wrote our notes,
While Suzanne hounded us for our "mon."

Mr. McCollough answered the call
To guide and direct us through the year;
Great progress we have made to date,
We are making the grade, you see, in high gear.

I hope that two more years will also bring
Many memories both pleasant and dear;
An end of war—a happy peace,
A successful close to our high school career.

The Freshman Class

The Freshman Class consists of 82 members. We admit we felt a trifle lost in our new environment, but soon adjusted ourselves to high school life. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Ralph Rowe we elected Richard Smith as our President, George Fullwood as Vice President, Ruth Tanner as Secretary, and Joan Furlong as Treasurer. Our banner (class colors) is red and white.

Our class is indebted to Charles McGary for the following poem:

The Sophomores we do not surpass,
We have a dandy Freshman class;
The Juniors do not know we're here,
But they'll find out by the end of the year.

The Seniors think that we're so small;
What were they before they grew tall?
The acorn from a seed did grow;
We shall reap whate'er we sow.

We are learning lessons fast;
Presidents we may become at last;
And our duties are well done,
Mixed with pleasure and with fun.

We are taught every day,
By able teachers who know the way;
Little Freshmen tho' we be,
We have a chance, don't you agree?

The Cannibal Queen

On December 8, 1944, the Senior Class presented the comedy entitled, "The Cannibal Queen". The cast under the direction of Miss Betty Davis gave an unusually outstanding performance.

The entire action of the play took place in the lobby of the Craig House, a family type hotel run by Mrs. Craig, a widow who was energetic and friendly.

Professor Kent who was staying at the hotel expected his nephew, Allen Kent, a mischievous lad who did not always tell the truth, to bring home a real South Sea Island Queen. Allen was in love with his high school sweetheart, Mildred Wade.

Bruce Clyde, a peppy, likeable, fast-talking newspaper editor for the paper owned by Mrs. Julia Boyd, hears that Allen did not bring the cannibal queen. In order to save the day for himself, he gets his fiancee, Brenda, to dress up and act the part of the queen. Brenda was trying to convince Eugena Sherwood, a drama director, that she was capable of taking the leading part in a play, and Bruce persuades Brenda that in assuming this part she will get her desire.

Mary Fremont, the professor's niece, and her husband, Robert, believe the whole thing is a farce and act accordingly all through the play.

Daisy Mae and Lucious Long, two colored people, act as Brenda's handmaiden and bodyguard.

Just before they came into the hotel, the unexpected happened, and the real Ju Ju who followed Allen Kent to the United States came into the hotel. Things surely happen fast. Finally everything turned out right when Ju Ju who already had seven husbands decided to take Lucious back with her to be the "king."

"Shenango Crier"

The Shenango Crier, our monthly news voice, has had a successful year under the capable supervision of Miss Edna Grimm and her efficient staff. This group has worked diligently to satisfy their many patrons—our schoolmates. Every issue reached this eager group of readers except those issues which failed to be published due to the heavy fall of snow several times during the term. The vacations more than repaid for the loss of the paper, and the staff and student body always carried on with more vigor and vim as the result of these vacations.

Quaestor ..... Jack Badger

The purpose of the Latin Club, "Circulus Latinus," is to increase our knowledge of Roman life, manners and customs. Meetings are held on the third Friday of every month. Members of this club are responsible for the program at these meetings.

Interest is promoted by the discussion of the battles and events of the Romans in the Latin days, as well as singing songs both in Latin and English, a language that has received over fifty per cent of its words from the Latin.

The Circulus Latinus voted to have "Veni, vidi, non vici" as their motto. Some Latin has been conquered but a still greater field lies ahead to that student who may continue studying in this subject.

As our Latin days draw to a close we remember with pleasure those times we forgot the translations for lively discussions, arguments, talks and above all the songs. We sign off with:

Valete puellae, Valete Pueri,
Valete puellae, A vobis abimus.

Motto: Libro cerrado no saca letrado (a closed book never makes a scholar).

Buenos Dias, Amigos, (Goodday Friends):

For the first time in the history of Shenango High School Spanish has been offered to the students. The class consists of 18 alumnos, nine senoritas and nine senores, under the capable supervision of Miss Barker. They have formed a club which meets once a month to discuss the language, its background, and the things which tend to make it more interesting.

By taking this course they sincerely desire to learn and become better acquainted with our southern neighbors through their language. They hope other students shall feel the same and continue with such a wonderful class. Believe me, they have learned a lot.

Hasta la vista (Till we meet again).

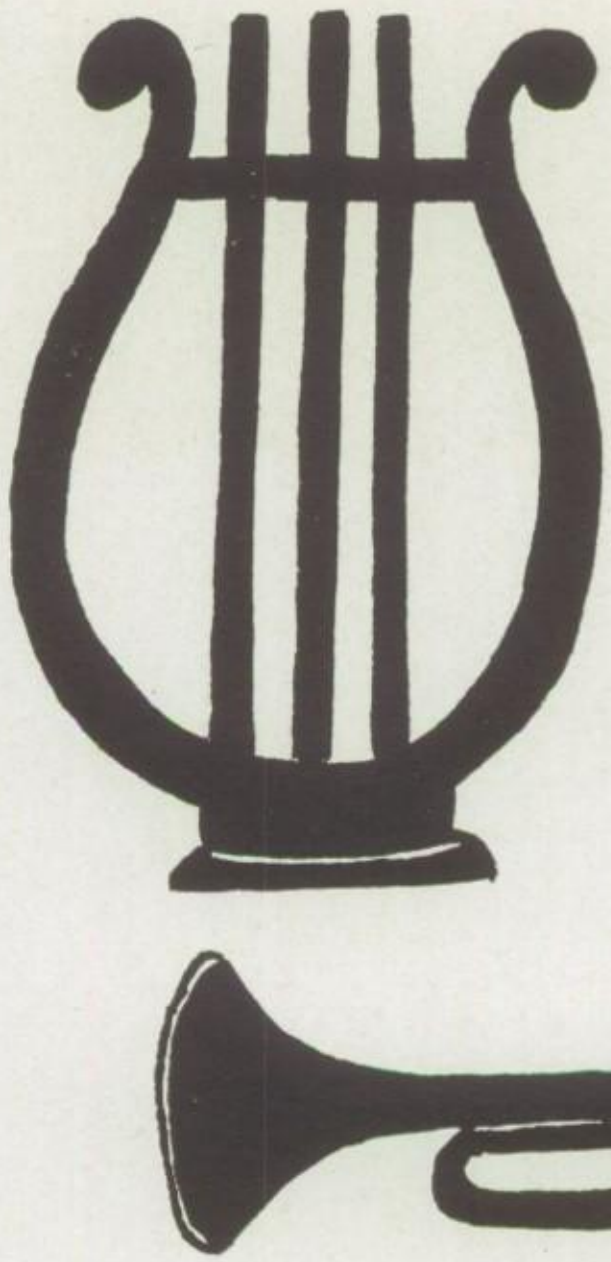
The Advanced Public Speaking Class organized "The Victory Club" for the purpose of helping win the war. With Miss Cowmeadow at the helm this group has made great strides in promoting their efforts on the home front, engaging in such activities as gathering magazines for the Deshon soldiers, and sponsoring a waste paper drive, the proceeds from which were used to purchase volley balls for the soldiers at the Annex.

The Club played an active part in the Stamp and Bond contest, the canvas for the Red Cross, and all other major drives of the year.



"Navy Band"

The Orchestra

The members of the Junior and Senior High School who are musically inclined receive much enjoyment and valuable experience in the orchestra. Under Mr. Kyle's careful direction this group has performed at various school programs. Three outstanding performances to be mentioned are the Junior and Senior Plays, the Operetta and Commencement.

The Band

"When the Blue and Gold comes down the field,
We know that they will never, never yield."

You can be sure when the band strikes up this tune it always adds school spirit to the football game and gives the team enough confidence to cross the line.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Kyle the band has been very successful in playing marches and school songs for assembly and pep meetings.

Girls' Chorus

Membership in the Girls' Chorus this year was limited to the girls of the Freshman and Sophomore classes. The chorus provides excellent opportunity for ensemble training. It is a training group for the mixed chorus and also gives experience to those with solo ability. They performed well under the leadership of Mr. Kyle.

Mixed Chorus

Under the leadership of Mr. Chester Kyle the mixed chorus has enjoyed many an activity period practicing and singing good music. Among the highlights of the year was the Operetta put on by this group. The colorful costumes and scenery coupled with the solos and chorus numbers added a new type of dramatic production to Shenango High School.

The Cheerleaders

"What is the matter with the Cheerleaders?"
"They're all right."
"Who's all right?"
"The Cheerleaders and Mr. Kyle."

Shenango students believe it's time to give fifteen big "rahs" for our six cheerleaders and their enthusiastic director, Mr. Chester Kyle. Much credit is due this hard-working group. Their peppy leading of the cheers has helped our football stars to cross the line or has given that fast basketball player the extra energy to make the winning basket.

There is nothing that will encourage a team more than the rousing cheering of the student body. They feel that they must do their best and not disappoint a group that is eagerly cheering them on to victory.

As games are played and championships are won, our lively, peppy cheerleaders are busy practicing new "yells" that with student-backing will insure success for Shenango.

The County Three-way Tie

Our 1944 team as assembled was made up of 27 inexperienced players and two veterans, Charles Tanner and Anthony Morrone. We started our practices two weeks before the school term opened. We were a very high-spirited bunch of boys, ready, willing, and able to do what our coach, Mr. Nahas, told us.

Our first few games were unsuccessful as far as wins go, but we were always in there fighting to the last second, giving the other team everything we had. Then came the County League games with Union and Bessemer. These were the ones that counted. In the Union game, we were ahead until the last couple of minutes when Union ran back a punt for 65 yards for a touchdown.

That didn't stop us! The following week was one of hard grueling practices, but it paid off. Our reward, and the crowning success of the season was the defeat of Bessemer, 13-0, to give us a three-way tie in the County League.

The ones who have played their last games for their Alma Mater are Captain Anthony Morrone, Duane Dougherty, Dan Ehrheart, George Metz, and Charles Fordyce.

The Basketball Season

Early in November, Mr. Nahas, our high school basketball coach, called all candidates to practice. A large group of boys greeted him including four lettermen: Charles Tanner, Jack Badger, Merle Zeigler, and Marlen Shaffer. After two weeks of hard practice the pre-season games were started. We had considerable success in these games, winning five and losing two, both losses by one-point margins.

The regular Section 21 competition began on January 5 with Shenango defeating Eastbrook very easily on our court. The following Tuesday we suffered a loss to Bessemer but we had a brilliant comeback by defeating the highly touted New Wilmington team. The next sectional game found us tangling with Wampum and losing but holding Wampum to a low score. Our next game found us entertaining Mt. Jackson with another victory for the Wildcats. The final game of the first half found us playing our old rival Union High. This was a thrilling game, with the score see-sawing back and forth with Shenango finally winning by one point. The first half of the Section 21 competition found Shenango winding up with a record of four wins and two losses.

Shenango opened the second half by playing and defeating a return engagement with Eastbrook. We then traveled to New Wilmington suffering a defeat, setting us back in the race. On the following Friday we entertained Wampum and were again the losers in a hard, well-fought game. The third game of the second half was played at Mt. Jackson where we recovered from our losing streak and piled up a high score. Union then ventured to try their luck again against their Shenango rival but we easily triumphed on the old home floor. The Princeton game was another victory for the Nahas coached team. We completed the season with a brilliant triumph over Bessemer placing Shenango in third place in the Section 21 competition with eight sectional wins against four losses.

After the season was over Shenango participated in a Tri-County Tournament in which teams from Butler and Lawrence Counties took part. Shenango entered the semi-finals by defeating Zelienople, champions of Section 25, by a score of 49-29. The next evening our team played Wampum, keeping ahead of them the entire game, only to lose in the closing minutes with a margin of 3 points, 50-47. This was the best game of the year with both teams hot.

"School days, dear old golden rule days,
The Seniors and their mannerly ways,
We'll not forget forever and aye."

Lest We Forget

SENIORS ATTENTION! REMEMBER WHEN:

1. Margie put worms in Elmer's lunch.
2. Mr. Nahas got Irene's and Laura's notes.
3. George Metz wrote a lovely letter to Lois McIlrath.
4. Mary Beckert and Laura got caught discussing "diaries" in chorus.
5. Dale McKissick was seen leaving Della Mayberry's house at 5 a. m.
6. George Metz fell off the sled at our Sleighing Party.
7. Gracie got stuck in an elevator with a man.
8. Margie fell off the horse and Mr. Beatty saw her.
9. The teachers called their dignified Seniors names.
10. Karna Drake and Della Mayberry did jitterbug.
11. The blood trickled from Norma Fleeger's nose when she had her chemistry experiment.
12. Mr. Kyle threw Katie Sager around on the sleigh ride.
13. The Seniors had to loosen their belts at the chili supper.
14. Margaret McGary, Margie Fuhs, and Lois McIlrath had to thumb their way home from play practice. It was all right, Elmer was there.
15. The weather affected the Seniors' plans.
16. The Victory Club skipped P. O. D.
17. Our football team fooled us and beat Bessemer.
18. Mr. Kyle did sweat over his assembly programs.
19. Ethel Dudash blushed when the teachers called upon her.
20. The Novelty Committee starved to get their Annual finished.
21. Mrs. Marino treated us.
22. The Senior boys dedicated the song "After the Ball Is Over" to Mrs. Marino.
23. Phyllis Smith and Marlen Shaffer waded snow drifts after ads.
24. Many of the Annual Staff gave up their vacation during the coal shortage to get this Yearbook to the printer.
25. Mr. Canan preached to the P. O. D. class and its effect upon the Seniors.

"Remember 'm'; remember 'e';
Put them together, and remember 'me'."

The World of Tomorrow

I stopped at "Ma" Gilson's newsstand to pick up "The Shenango Crier." To my delight I find that Norma Fleeger will become the first woman president of the United States. Too bad the Republican candidate, Marlen Shaffer, had to lose, but he still has his multi-millions and his chorus girls.

Well, well appearing at the McGary Swank Nite Club are Dale McKissick, the great band leader and Catherine Sager, his swoon singer. I'd like to know how Della likes being an orchestra leader's wife.

What's this here? Phyllis Smith is on trial for bigamy. I wonder if they ever caught up with Mary Beckert? Our great crime-buster, Eleanor Styers, raided the Smiley Burlesque Theatre where Elmer Hilton had been appearing in "The Cannibal Queen." The local courtroom is a busy place. Even Marjory Fuhs is being held for poisoning her patient, Irene Walters. She pleads "not guilty" since she only got a chemistry formula mixed up. Her star attorney, George Tervo, is sure to win the case.

My! My! Jean Kelly is still filabustering in Congress on whether congressmen should wear their hats to and from the capitol building. Jean understands so well the important issues facing our nation.

On the society page I see where Mary Ruth Alford and Karna Drake are full-pledged navy nurses. They will now be able to see more of the world and the gobs. Ethel Dudash has gone to New York to become one of the famous Metz models, and Charles Fordyce is having great success managing "His Lonely Heart Club."

Since Mr. Johnston's promotion to Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, Stella Zak has been elected as supervising principal at Shenango. Mr. Canan is a member of the State Legislature and at present is railroading a bill through the House that will permit schools to close down for any emergency without making up the time.

Lois McIlrath has become Howard Moore's private secretary. The world is now considering Duane Dougherty as the second Henry Ford. Florence Makarevich is the well paid bus driver of the Boro bus. Donna Jean Marso, the manhater, is now head of the Almira Home. She is ably assisted by Iona Turner, lone heiress of the wealthy Cowmeadow estate.

The sports and entertainment section come next. I can hardly believe my eyes as I read that Joyce Forsberg is the undefeated lady tennis player of America, and, still more impossible, that Johnny Williams is the lightweight champion.

Grace McCandless is a great success as "Baby Snooks." The Ringling Brothers Circus is coming to town starring Anna Michaels as the bravest lion tamer in the world. It is said that Miriam Hemming is the most romantic star in Hollywood. She is now appearing in "I'm No Wolfess, Wolf-Wolf."

Heading the Want Ad Section is Lois McQuiston's notice that her beauty shop offers a face lifting special to any member of the Class of '45. Let's all apply. Here in big letters is "Get your fresh farm products from Stella Horney."

Tony Morrone is no longer advertising his wrecking business since Margaret White alone gives him plenty to do along that line.

Mary Pritchard would like to trade a "Coupe" for a "Station Wagon" to accommodate her family.

The Bulisco "Five and Ten" is having another sale.

Madame Staph will demonstrate "How to bleach your hair the quick and easy way."

What is this small article? Is Ellen Goodwill taking in sewing until her sailor comes home?

Florence Shaner is advertising for four more high chairs since the quads arrived.

I wonder if Lois Pettitt ever succeeded in getting a ten-party line since her radio is out of order.

I see where Irene Zmuda has another notice in the paper asking her husband to come home and she'll never throw another dish at him again. Dan Ehrheart is advertising that he has finally succeeded in reducing to be a second Sinatra.

Irene Adamczyk Jones Smith Vanderbilt just came over so I must put the paper down and listen to her story of how her third husband committed suicide if I want to inherit any of her millions.
